

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

482/483 Series

INTRODUCTION

The 480 six-blade CW units, ranging from 20" (508 mm) to 32" (812 mm), the ACS 480 Series sets the standard for efficiency and superior air movement. Designed to maximize airflow and built for continuous operation in a wide range of applications, this series delivers exceptional cooling performance in every environment.

Engineered with a durable construction and premium-quality materials, the ACS 480 Series provides reliable, consistent performance—even in the toughest conditions.

It overcomes challenges with ease, delivering fast, effective cooling exactly where it's needed most.
